

WORKERS' MEMORIAL DAY

North Lincolnshire Council's ceremony inside the Council Chamber, Pittwood House, Ashby Road, Scunthorpe, North Lincolnshire
Thursday 28 April 2011, 1.30pm

- Cllr Allan Smith, the Mayor of North Lincolnshire Council, to welcome everyone and hand over to Cllr Len Foster - Workers' Memorial Day co-ordinator who will say a few words and then introduce the speakers

Speakers:

- Reverend Alice Nunn, Member of the Multi Faith Partnership
- Dave Monaghan, Unite the Union
- Mike Nind, HM Inspector of Health & Safety
- Nic Dakin, MP for Scunthorpe
- Simon Driver, Chief Executive of North Lincolnshire Council
- Cllr Len Foster to close the ceremony and then invite everyone to go outside and make their way across the park to the Memorial Stone

Canon Mike Cooney - Industrial Chaplain to North Lincolnshire to dedicate the Workers' Memorial Day Stone and to call for prayers, thoughts and remembrance and one minutes' silence. He will then ask the Mayor to lay a wreath and invite everyone else to follow on.
Mayor of NLC to lead everyone to Function Room Two within Pittwood House, where tea/coffee will be available