

In April 1914 Kitty and Tom Higdon, loved and respected teachers at Burston Village School, were sacked for their socialist and Trade Union views.

The pupils walked out in support, and from then until 1939 the villagers and the Higdons ran the 'Strike School', providing an education for local children.

Times change but the struggle in rural areas for economic and social justice continues.

Join us at the Burston Strike School Rally on Sunday 4th September to commemorate the longest strike in history, and to celebrate the people who continue to fight for Trade Union rights, working class education, democracy in the countryside and international solidarity.
