Data Protection Notice

 By joining Amicus you are providing information which may be used for administrative purposes, the holding of elections and other statutory requirements.

If you do not tick the box on page 3 you consent to Amicus passing on your information for the promotion of membership services (e.g. Insurance). We may disclose your information to our service providers and agents for these purposes. However if we do disclose your information, we will put a contract in place to ensure it is protected.

We or they may contact you by post, telephone, (but not if you or the subscriber to a telephone line has registered with the Telephone Preference Service), e-mail, SMS Text or such other means as we may agree with you from time to time, to let you know about any goods, services or promotions that may be of interest to you. We may keep your information for a reasonable period to contact you about our services.

You have the right to ask for a copy of your information (for which we charge a small fee) and to correct any inaccuracies. To make sure we follow your instructions correctly and to improve our service to you through training our staff, we may monitor or record communications.
