

It can be too late,
But never too early.SM

School of Infant mental health

TWO-DAY WORKSHOP

The workshop will include:

An introduction into early mental and communication development during the first year of life; the function of parents; signals of early distress and how they are utilised by professionals; the organisation of early intervention; early screening scales and monitoring of emotional development.

SPEAKERS:

Dr Stella M Acquarone, PhD

Adult and Child Psychotherapist,
Principal of the School of Infant Mental Health and Parent Infant Clinic.

Founder of the charity IPAN (reg no. 1116398)

Professor David M. Foreman, MB, ChB, MRC
Psy, FRC Psych, FRCPCH. Consultant in Child &
Adolescent Psychiatry to the Isle of Man Government.

FOR MORE INFORMATION AND REGISTRATION
FORM, PLEASE CONTACT:

THE SCHOOL OF INFANT MENTAL HEALTH

27 Frognal, London NW3 6AR
Phone: +44 (0) 20 7433 3112

Email: trainings@infantmentalhealth.com
www.infantmentalhealth.com

‘Behavioural Signs Of Autism in Early infancy’

THE SCHOOL OF
INFANT MENTAL HEALTH

Sponsored by International Pre-Autistic Network.

www.ipan-babies-autism.org

Invite you to join us for a workshop on:

Saturday/Sunday
5th & 6th March 2011

Venue: The Atrium, Royal Free Hospital, Pond Street, NW3 2QG

Time: 10.00 – 16.00 hours

COST: FREE Advance booking only

CPD tbc