

Negotiators' News

GEN NN 3.04

AMICUS/CMA COURSES FOR AUTUMN 2004

The following courses will be held in Blackpool in November. Those interested and eligible should obtain an application form from their Branch Secretary or from Annette Stain at CMA Headquarters (Tel 0118 934 6022).

The Introductory School is open to all Functional Reps in Service Delivery and those branch officials with industrial relations functions in other businesses.

The Secondary School is aimed at branch officials and functional reps that have completed an Introductory School.

Both the Introductory and Secondary courses are accredited to NVQ Level 2 via Wigan College.

Both Amicus/CMA schools will be held at the Liberty Hotel, Blackpool. The schools will commence at 10.00 am on day one and conclude at lunchtime on day five. If required, accommodation will be available on the Sunday night for these courses.

Introductory School
15 - 19 November

Secondary School
22 - 26 November

G4.12813

Subscriptions

With effect from 1st October 2004, the subscription rate for members who are on a career break, work part-time, or aged under twenty one will be revised to align with the Amicus-wide subscription rates for these categories for new members.

The rates would be as follows:

Career break	Nil
Part-time (members aged 21 or over who normally work less than 20 hours per week)	£5.10 per month
Members age 21 and under	£5.10 per month
The monthly subscription for all other members will remain at	£9.60 per month

Branch Officials

Would Branch Secretaries please notify Headquarters of any changes to Branch Officials. Contact Kate Laing on 0118 9346024 or email klaing@cma.org.uk.

CONTENTS

Para 3.1 Amicus/CMA Courses