

DIGNITY AT WORK CONFERENCE - MAKING IT REAL

Chaired by Baroness Gibson of Market Rasen OBE

Thursday 3 July 2008, 10.30am - 4.00pm

Friends Meeting House, 173 Euston Road, London, NW1 2BJ

Unite the union invites you to a one day conference to help your organisation take a pro-active approach to Dignity at Work.

This conference draws on the best expertise available to really support organisations through changing their approach and tackling bullying, harassment and all other forms of unacceptable behaviour in the workplace.

This is a free conference for management and trade union representatives.

Speakers include:

Phil Hope MP,
Minister for the Third Sector (invited)

Professor Duncan Lewis
Professor Michael Sheehan
(University of Glamorgan)

Ed Sweeney
(Chair of ACAS)

Case Study from the Children's Society

Rachael Maskell
(Unite National Officer)

Workshops:

1. Leadership Dilemmas & Workplace Bullying
2. Workplace Bullying:
Discussing the real costs
3. Defining firm management and unacceptable behaviour
4. Is yours a strategic organisation?
5. Methods of intervention

RSVP Maureen.German@unitetheunion.com Tel 020 7420 8978, Fax 020 7420 8999