

East Midlands Region Retired Members Association (RMA)

Are you retired?

Did you know Unite has a Retired Members Association?

Our Rule Book states

"Unite's Retired Members Association shall promote the interest of all senior citizens by working with other bodies involved with the retired, cementing links with the Union and ensuring its support both within the Union and beyond. The RMA shall harness the support of members in retirement in promoting the Union's political and campaigning objectives."

The East Midlands RMA is very active, having RMA groups across the East Midlands. They have developed strong links with the Midlands Region TUC Network and the National Pensioners Convention (NPC) which makes representations to the Government on Pensioners issues.

East Midlands RMA branches meet regularly and provide our retired members with the opportunity to campaign on relevant issues of particular importance to retired members. The RMA links in to the largest lay committee in the Region ensuring that retired member's issues are brought to the attention of the Union as a whole.

Please see over for details on how you register an interest in becoming involved in your local RMA branch or seek further information from your local RMA activist.
