

Dear Colleague,

UNITE POLICY FORUM EVENT

Unite is dedicated to delivering political change to support members in the workplace. A lot of work is devoted to this in Westminster on national issues such as new rights at work, pensions and the minimum wage as well as lobbying on many industrial areas.

However, the strength of the union is in the workplace and it is vital that members have a voice in the development of political policy in this area.

There will be a political speaker to open the meeting but the most important part will be your views and ideas.
