

UNITE GLOBALISATION SCHOOLS

Fighting back against the corporate agenda!

One day schools for workplace representatives designed to develop a strategy for the Finance Sector in response to globalisation

"In the finance sector, our members are affected on a daily basis by the decisions taken by multinational companies. These schools are the first step in fighting back against the corporate agenda and developing a trade union response to global capital!"

Graham Goddard Unite (Amicus section) Deputy General Secretary

The courses will be held at the following locations:

SOUTH

9th April 2008, Esher College, commencing at 10.30 a.m.

MIDLANDS

21st April 2008, Quorn, commencing at 10.30 a.m.

NORTH

30th April 2008, Unite Glasgow office commencing at 10.30 a.m.

To register for these one-day schools please contact
Michelle Gracio at Unite – Amicus Section
35 King St London WC2E 8JG Michelle.Gracio@unitetheunion.com