Wednesday,
November 30th

March

Assemble 12 noon at Lincoln Inn Fields. March departs at 1pm

Rally

2pm Victoria Embankment (Horseguards Avenue – Westminster Bridge)

On November 30th, 2011 you can:

- support the picket line at your local workplace
- visit local town centre events and demonstrations
- join the march and rally in London

Government plans will force millions of public sector workers to work longer, pay more but get less in retirement.

From nurses to teaching assistants, park keepers to those who care for our elderly, millions of public workers will be poorer in old age. These are cuts, imposed by the coalition, as it seeks to make the low-waged pay for the sins of the banking elite.

Join Unite and other trade unionists to march and rally in defence of our public sector.
