* 'In the event that more than one member from the same branch is in the top six candidates only the candidate with the highest number of votes from that branch will be elected.'

I am satisfied that there are no reasonable grounds for believing that there was any contravention of a requirement imposed by or under any enactment in relation to the election.

I am satisfied that the arrangements made with respect to the production, storage, distribution, return or other handling of the voting papers used in the election, and the arrangements for the counting of the votes, included all such security arrangements as were reasonably practicable for the purpose of minimising the risk that any unfairness or malpractice might occur.

I have been able to carry out my functions without such interference as would make it reasonable for any person to call my independence in relation to the union into question.

I examined the register of members at my own request. No member or candidate made a request to me to inspect or examine a copy of the membership register. I drew the attention of the union to matters in order to assist it in securing that the register is accurate and up to date.

Amicus GPM Sector did not appoint an Independent Person under Section 51A of the Act.
