

BABY BRAINS: Research in Infancy

Combining neuro-science and psychoanalysis to understand babies in NICU, and childhood disability. Research on oxytocin and its implications for pregnancy, birth and after.

TWO-DAY WORKSHOP

SPEAKERS:

Professor Elvidina Adamson-Macedo: PhD, Chartered Health Psychologist, University of Wolverhampton, UK. The mind and body of the pre term neonate and the study of touching and caressing – tender in caring therapy 'TAC TIC'

Dr Kerstin Uvmas-Moberg: (Author of 'The Oxytocin Factor' and coordinator of the most comprehensive scientific research on oxytocin in Sweden): Research on oxytocin and its implications for pregnancy, birth and after.

Dr Cathy Urwin: Consultant Child Psychotherapist and Research Fellow at the Tavistock Clinic.

A qualitative framework for evaluating clinical effectiveness in child Psychotherapy: The hopes and expectations of treatment approach (HETA)

Dr Sara Norgate: Senior Lecturer in Psychology, Developmental Psychology: The development of young children with visual impairment. (Other speakers tbc)

THE SCHOOL OF INFANT MENTAL HEALTH

Invite you to join us for a workshop in:

The Langorf Hotel
20 Frognal, London NW3 6AG

Saturday/Sunday

21st & 22nd May 2011

TIME

Saturday: 11.00 to 18.00 hours

Sunday: 11.00 to 18.00 hours

COST: tbc

CPD Credits

FOR MORE INFORMATION AND REGISTRATION FORM,
PLEASE GO ONLINE: www.infantmentalhealth.com

THE SCHOOL OF INFANT MENTAL HEALTH

27 Frognal, London NW3 6AR

OR CONTACT

Phone: +44 (0) 20 7433 3112

Email: enquiries@infantmentalhealth.com