

Incident Management and Investigation

This challenging course is intended to equip experienced safety representatives with specific skills in the field of incident management and investigation. The programme also provides a comprehensive understanding of the benefit of investigations.

Who should attend?

Experienced safety reps who have completed Managing Health & Safety.

Learning outcomes

On completion of the course safety reps should be able to:

- Comprehend the value of conducting investigations.
- Conduct a full and meaningful investigation.
- Understand the employers' legal obligations.
- Develop a local framework of workplace investigative procedures.
- Feel more confident when dealing with HSE inspectors, police and solicitors.
- Communicate more effectively with employers.
- Recommend meaningful interventions to prevent a recurrence.
- Understand the benefits of a no-blame culture.

Pre-course activities

Look at how your company investigates accidents and the documents they use for that purpose.

Duration

5 days

Venues

National training centres.

Accreditation and certification

This course is accredited. On successful completion of this course you will be issued with a certificate of unit credit by the Open College Network (OCN).

Progression route

There are other Health and Safety courses available please see the Education Section on Unite's website for further details.

Key points

Aimed at:

Experienced safety reps who've completed Managing Health & Safety.

Duration:

5 days

National venues

Key aims

To provide safety reps with the confidence to:

- Comprehend the value of conducting investigations.
- Conduct a full and meaningful investigation.
- Understand the employer's legal obligations.
- Develop a local framework of workplace investigative procedures.
- Feel more confident when dealing with HSE inspectors, police and solicitors.
- Communicate more effectively with employers.
- Recommend meaningful interventions to prevent a recurrence.
- Understand the benefits of a no-blame culture.