

Access to a clean toilet is a basic human right yet thousands of UK workers are denied this.

What toilet dignity should look like

-  Access to clean gender specific lockable toilets
-  Toilet roll provided
-  Access to sanitary waste bins that are regularly cleaned and emptied
-  Access to clean handwashing facilities including soap and hot and cold running water
-  Access at your own liberty without having to ask permission or have your toilet break recorded.

 Unitetheunion1

 @unitetheunion

If you feel you have been denied toilet dignity at any point by your employer please get in touch with your rep or regional officer.

www.unitetheunion/toiletdignity

(JN8662) HB310119